

Here is a little more info on things going on the weekend of the Southern Vermont Art & Craft Festival and the Bennington Arts Weekend.

The Bennington Arts Weekend Committee is planning to have a reception/happy hour/art exhibit preview at Bennington Center for the Arts on Friday night, July 31 from 5:30-7 PM for the festival's vendors. This will be free of charge to you as exhibitors.. Bruce Laumeister has graciously donated the use of the space for this exhibitor reception. They are also planning to have music (acoustic guitar) by a local musician, light hors d'oeuvres and soda, ice tea, water, beer & wine. They will also be doing the gift/goody bags for you as they have done in the past two years. You will also be able to preview new art shows in BCA's galleries which are scheduled to open on Aug 1. You will get to see the new art before the public is invited.

Bennington Center for the Arts is west of Camelot Village. When you exit the parking lot, make a left on Route 9 and go a little more than 1,000 feet. The address is 44 Gypsy Lane. It is on the right.

Craftproducers will sponsor this event and but will not have an exhibitor party at the site on Saturday. Friday evening will be the exhibitor social.

We will do coffee/bagels at about 9:00 on Sunday instead of Friday.

We look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,

Tim Cianciola
